Richmond, Va., April 26 .-Manager Jack Dunn, of the Internationals, has dug up his annual pitching At least Jack thinks he has. The twirler is "Rube" Meadows, a Baltimore boy, who is only 19 years old. It was Dunnie who developed "Lefty" Russell. Bob Shawkey, Ernie Shore and "Babe" Ruth, the latter two last year, and now he has Meadows, who is at present pitching for the Mt. St. Joseph College team, near Baltimore. New York Glants and Washington Americans were trying to sign Meadows, but Dunn beat them to the boy.

OTHER SPORTING GOSSIP

New York, April 26.-Rather a disconsolate, but nevertheless scrappy band of athletes boarded the midnight express for Washington, where tomorrow a fourgame series will be opened against Con-nie Mack's tribe from the Sleepy City. Jim Shaw will be turned loose against the Athletics tomorrow, according to present plans, and with the possible ex-ception of Danny Moeller the Nationals' batting order will remain the same as in today's game. Umpires Evans and Mullaney have been ordered back to Washington, so this pair will be on the job for the Athletica' series. Mullaney missed one play here today that might have changed the en-tire complexion of the game, for if the Griffmen had been able to score in the fourth, as every indication pointed, had not Foster been called out at first base. Griff would have removed Joe Boehling contest.
